Message to Graduates

One chapter ends, another begins! Some choose to be the author of their story, while others choose to be the subject in someone else's masterpiece. The past four years have prepared you for the next four, and so, it's up to you to decide which of life's paths define you. We live in a world where we know for sure that we cannot and should not sit idly and allow others to decide what is best for us as a people and as a nation. Shaping the future not just for your children, but for generations to come has always been the right of passage. Wherever that journey takes you, college, military or the workplace, be sure to give it your all and remember to always thank those whose shoulders you relied upon for support.

Arts High School provided you with more than the opportunity to earn a high school diploma. You have honed your academic and artistic skills, experienced triumphs and regrets, laughed, loved, and cried. There were hard times and silly moments. You have met strangers and made lifelong friends. It is my hope that one day you will be able to reflect on the life lessons you experienced at Arts and realize how much better you are for having lived it. Continue working on being the best you that only you can be. Congratulations, my Jaguars! One chapter well lived, many more exciting adventures await you. Your alma mater will always be here for you.

Farewell!

Class of 2017 Advisors

Mr. Scott Cumberbatch

Ms. Christa Caldwell

“O Arts High, we sing to you – to the green and gray, we’re true...”

To the Class of 2017:

Words are simply inadequate to express the pride and joy you all have brought to Arts High. While there may have been minor hiccups here and there, this year has produced notable creative expressions and performances and academic achievements that surpass many who have attended AHS.

As you leave these hollowed corridors, it is my hope that you hold on to the memories you have created over the last four years in this building, continue to nourish the friendships, and press on to meet the goals you have set for yourselves. I also hope that you are looking forward to creating new memories of happiness as you journey into and achieve in the halls of academe, military training and service, and/or career paths designed especially for you. There is greatness out there for you; it’s up to you to find, attain, and enjoy it. As The Bard, William Shakespeare quoted, “The earth has music for those who listen.”

While you are looking forward to the journey, remember that it will not be easy, but you have to persevere in order to make a great name for yourself. Remember, you will have successes and challenges. For the areas that may produce challenges, it is up to you to make the best of the negatives and turn them into positives, remembering that no matter how hard you have to work, hard work and tenacity produce transcendence to unknown heights!

“As the years go marching on...”

It is my hope and prayer that I will one day see your names in great lights, as you not only represent your families, the great City of Newark, and the great State of New Jersey, but you also represent the nation’s first school of performing and visual arts, its faculty, staff, current students, and innumerable alumni.

Wishing you all the best,

Mr. Cumberbatch

Success is not final, failure is not fatal:
it is the courage to continue that counts.” -Winston Churchill

I have been blessed to call Arts High School my home for the last 4 years and to call those who made my experience memorable my family. We have seen each other through some of the hardest times and some of the best times. I have a firm belief that each and every one of us is destined to go extremely far, and though our successes may not be the same, they will be ours. We each have the potential to do something that changes the world, and we all have the ability to bring back to our community more than what is here now. It is up to us, the young, up-and-coming, to give back to the city and community that many of us have called home for a long time. It is up to us, the bright faces of the future, to go out there and do what we do best - aim to do everything we do the only way we know how to do it, with diligence and determination. Let's go out and show everyone exactly what we've become together in the last four years. It has been a great few years for us all together at Arts High School, but I think the world is ready to see what it is we can all do.

"A candle loses nothing by lighting another candle." -James Keller

They say that life is not about what you have, but who you have that makes life worth it. This statement could not be any closer to the truth. Attending Arts for four years came with its troubles and tribulations. However, those tribulations were never fought alone. Despite all the things going on in the world, the foundation and value of family at Arts High never changed. As history gets rewritten every single day, my love and appreciation only heightens. It has been a privilege to attend a high school surrounded by joy, resilience, diversity, and unity. As we move on, it is important that we keep those qualities and that Jaguar pride in our hearts forever - no matter where we go. By closing the door to the past, we open the door to new opportunities. May we continue to stay together and strive for change.

Lost Years Younger Years

One Last Look at Arts High!

Alma Mater

Oh, Arts High we sing to you to the green and gray we're true

Your portrayals of art and song, will forever make you strong.

Your halls and your classes hold the memories of great deeds.

As the years go marching on,
one by one we'll soon be gone.

Though our hearts will be with you,
